☎ 808-532-7110

📍 200 N. Vineyard Blvd, Ste 430
Honolulu, HI 96817

🌐 www.atrc.org

(✉) info@atrc.org

Assistive Technology for School and Work

Assistive Technology for School and Work helps people with motor, sensory, cognitive, or learning disabilities read, write, do math, and keep organized to succeed in academic related tasks.

Reading: slant board, guided reading strips, magnifying glass or sheet, hand held magnifier, pen reader, hand held scanner, table top magnifier, text to speech built in accessibility features, text to speech apps, dedicated screen reading programs, audiobooks

Writing: pencil grips, adapted paper, slant board, typing, adapted keyboard, mind mapping graphic organizers, speech to text built in accessibility features, speech to text apps, dedicated speech to text programs

Math: graph paper, manipulatives, abacus, tactile graphics, talking calculator, currency identifier, math apps, dedicated accessible math websites, screen readers, speech to text

Organization: written instructions, daily/weekly/monthly planner, highlighters, checklists, timers, planner apps, checklist apps, audio recorded checklists and planners, alarms, graphic organizers, project management websites