Device Loan Library

ATRC runs a short term device loan library in order to assist in AT decision making, serve as a loaner while the consumer is waiting for a device repair or funding, provide an accommodation on a short term basis for a limited time event, or for training, self-education, or other professional development activity.

Loans can be made to individuals or entities.

At this time, individuals, therapists, care coordinators, caretakers, or anyone interested in a loan can contact ATRC directly to initiate a loan.

Please call or email us to start the process!
